KRON PRINZ WILHELM NOT TO INTERNE

Collector of Customs Hamilton Has Authorized Commerce Destroyer to Go Into Drydock.

[By Associated Press.]
Newport News, Va., April 15.—"I myself will not interne."

This was the emphatic declaration of Lieutenant Captain Thierfelder, commander of the German converted cruiser Kron Prinz Wilhelm, when informed by newspaper men Wednesday that it generally was reported the Kron Prinz Wilhelm ultimately would interne in this port.

It was rumored that Commander Thierfelder of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich had taken a similar stand, but his government had ordered the Prinz Eitel Friedrich interned. Commander Thierfelder made no reference to the probable action of the German government with regard to the disposition to be made of the Kron Prinz Wilhelm.

Authorization to take the cruiser into drydock was given yesterday by Collector of Customs Hamilton. The commerce destroyer will be removed from her anchorage into drydock Friday. The condition of the cruiser and her boilers is such that it will require three weeks to complete the repairs for which her commander has asked.

Any knowledge of the whereabouts or operations of the German cruiser Karlsruhe, which raided commerce in the Atlantic Ocean, was disclaimed by Captain Thierfelder.
